

It is time for the 4th of July Parade!

Everyone has favorite 4th of July celebrations, and our neighborhood is no exception. If you've not done our parade before, come on out this year. We can guarantee lots of fun, with music, special guests, and give aways. As always, we will have a firetruck leading the parade.

Route

Begin at the other BCC club site on Spicewood Club Drive, just south of Spicewood Parkway.
--Go south on Spicewood Club Drive, turn right on Malinda, and right again on Plumewood.
--Continue north on Plumewood, curving to the right to Spicewood Club Drive.
--Turn left on Spicewood Club Drive and continue to the starting point.

Times

Line up at 8:30 AM
Parade starts at 9 AM

Who can attend

Parade is open to all residents and families. Decorate yourself, strollers, wagons, and golf carts. Reminder - if the street is too hot for your bare feet, it is too hot for your dog's paws.

Give them a ride in the golf cart.

Volunteers are important, too.

We have opportunities that will appeal to everyone. Find the one you like, click the email link below, and let us know.

Before the parade

*Deliver postcards to people along the parade route.
Put out flags along the curbs of the parade route.*

During the parade

Hand out beads.
Direct people along the route.
Take photos.*

After the parade

Manage tables for water, popsicles, give-aways, raffle tickets, and clean-up.
